

European Company Law

Author Guide

[A] Aim of the Journal

The increase in cross-border corporate activity has meant that developments in European company and securities law continue to pose a challenge to law firms and corporations. Staying current in this dynamic and rapidly-changing area of practice can be no easy task. To help you manage this challenge Kluwer Law International publishes European Company Law (ECL), a legal information service that provides you with an authoritative overview of current developments.

European Company Law has been designed to be the ideal working tool for all corporate lawyers with a European practice. Published bi-monthly and available in print and online, you'll find it a time saving way of keeping up-to-date with all the issues affecting European company law. ECL's Editorial Board has a thorough understanding of the needs of the legal practitioner and all articles have been written to follow the SCIP principle: Scientific, Concise, Informative and Practical. Also, where relevant, articles include hyperlinks to websites where more information about the topic can be downloaded.

With 6 issues a year, European Company Law is the ideal companion to keep you up-to-date with developments.

ECL's Main Editor is Steef M. Bartman, a practicing lawyer in Amsterdam and emeritus professor of Company Law at Leiden University, The Netherlands. The Editorial Board is comprised of leading academics from various European law schools, assisted by the Board's secretaries professor Cornelis de Groot from Leiden University, the Netherlands, and professor Thomas Papadopoulos from the University of Cyprus, Cyprus. Together with a team of committed country reporters their combined knowledge and experience will ensure that you gain as much practical insight and analysis as possible on the developments taking place in this extremely important area of the law.

[C] Submission Guidelines

- [1] An article title should be concise, with a maximum of 70 characters.
- [2] The article should contain an abstract, a short summary of about 200 words. This abstract will also be added to the free search zone of the Kluwer Online database.
- [3] To further boost the search engine optimization (SEO) of your article, please provide approximately ten keywords that describe the content of your contribution.
- [4] A brief biographical note, including both the current affiliation as well as the e-mail address of the author(s), should be provided in the first footnote of the manuscript.
- [5] Contributions should have a range of approximately 4,000 to 5,000 words (footnotes excluded).
- [6] Only articles in English will be considered for publication. Manuscripts should be written in standard English, while using 'ize' and 'ization' instead of 'ise' and 'isation'. Preferred reference source is the Oxford English Dictionary. However, in case of quotations the original spelling should be maintained. In case the complete article is written by an American author, US spelling may also be used.

- [7] Manuscripts will be returned to the author if the English is below standard. In case of doubt about the correct use of the English language, authors are advised to have their text checked by a native speaker before submitting it.
- [8] Heading levels should be clearly indicated.
- [9] Special attention should be paid to quotations, footnotes, and references. All citations and quotations must be verified before submission of the manuscript. The accuracy of the contribution is the responsibility of the author. The journal has adopted the Association of Legal Writing Directors (ALWD) legal citation style to ensure uniformity. Citations should not appear in the text but in the footnotes. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively, using the footnote function in Word so that if any footnotes are added or deleted the others are automatically renumbered.
- [10] Tables should be self-explanatory and their content should not be repeated in the text. Do not tabulate unnecessarily. Tables should be numbered and should include concise titles.
- [11] Figures should be submitted as separate files along with the manuscript, and it is very important that they are high quality: .tif or .jpg files with a resolution of at least 600 dpi. Image material that has been downloaded from the internet generally is not acceptable due to low resolution.
- [12] Submitted manuscripts are understood to be final versions. They must not have been published or submitted for publication elsewhere.
- [13] Manuscripts should be submitted electronically, in Word format, via e-mail.

For further information on style, see the House Style Guide.

[D] Review Process

- [1] Before submission to the publisher, manuscripts will be reviewed by the Board of Editors and may be returned to the author for revision. Reviewers are aware of the identity of the authors, but authors are unaware of the identity of reviewers.
- [2] The journal's policy is to provide an initial assessment of the submission within thirty days of receiving the posted submission. In cases where the article is externally referred for review, this period may be extended.
- [3] The editors reserve the right to make alterations as to style, punctuation, grammar etc.
- [4] As a rule the author will not receive proofs of the article. Proofreading will be taken care of by the Board of Editors.

[E] Copyright

- [1] Publication in the journal is subject to authors signing a 'Consent to Publish and Grant of Exclusive Licence' form. By signing this Form, authors warrant and represent that their contribution does not contain infringing, libellous, obscene or other unlawful matter.
- [2] Authors are allowed to post their articles on public websites such as SSRN subject to the conditions set in our Rights & Permissions Guide. In this Guide you can also find which other rights remain reserved to the author.
- [3] The author shall receive for the rights granted a free copy of the issue of the journal in which the article is published, plus a PDF file of his/her article.

[F] Indexing & abstracting databases

- [1] The journal has been accepted for indexing in the Emerging Sources Citation Index (Web of Science)

[G] Publication Ethics and Malpractice Statement

- [1] For more information on Wolters Kluwer's commitment to protect and maintain the high standards for all our publications, please read our Publication Ethics and Malpractice Statement.
