

- (1) Proposed contributions are invited and received on the understanding that they are final, and not preliminary drafts. They must not have been published or submitted for publication elsewhere and a statement to this effect should be included with the text submitted for publication. Only articles in English will be considered for publication.
- (2) In general, the most acceptable length for articles is between 3,000-8,000 words. Under no circumstances will articles exceed 12,000 words.
- (3) World Competition is a refereed journal. Every manuscript is submitted for peer review for the purpose of maintaining the standards of the journal.
- (4) Due to strict production schedules it is not possible to amend texts after acceptance or send proofs to authors for correction. The Editors reserve the right to make alterations as to style, grammar, and punctuation.
- (5) Articles which are submitted for publication must be accompanied by a 200-word abstract giving a brief description of the content. This abstract will be published online.
- (6) Articles should be provided in an electronic form (preferably in Microsoft Word or Word Perfect).
- (7) Higher Degrees, distinctions and the correct title of the author's present position should appear in a footnote marked by an asterisk after the author's name on the opening page of the article. General information about an article or acknowledgement for any assistance in its preparation may be added to this footnote.
- (8) Special attention should be paid to quotations, footnotes, and references. All citations and quotations must be verified before submission of the manuscript. The accuracy of the contribution is the responsibility of the author. Contributors should be particularly cautious of material which could be considered defamatory or litigious.
- (9) Footnotes should be numbered consecutively (so that if any footnote is added or deleted, all affected notes should be renumbered) and printed at the bottom of the relevant page.
- (10) Authors are encouraged to make reference to articles on the same or related topics previously published in World Competition.
- (11) Articles should be cited as follows: author's name, title of article in quotation marks, journal reference; e.g., Doris Hildebrand, 'The European School in EC Competition Law', W.Comp. 25 (2002): 1. Book references include the author/editor's name, title of book in italics, edition, place of publication, publisher, year, and page reference; e.g., Carl Michael von Quitzow, State Measures Distorting Free Competition in the EC (The Hague: Kluwer, 2002), 254. Guidelines for additional citation styles are available upon request.
- (12) For cross-references, please use 'above' and 'below', e.g., as note 14 above.
- (13) Tables should be self-explanatory and their content should not be repeated in the text. Do not tabulate unnecessarily. Tables should be numbered and may include a title. Column headings should be kept as brief as possible and descriptive text in narrow columns should be avoided.
- (14) General style rules are:
 - (a) Abbreviations and acronyms should be spelled out in the first instance with the abbreviation following in parentheses.
 - (b) Dates are as 1 May 2002, May 2002, 2001-2002, 1990s.
 - (c) Case names should be italicized, e.g., Case C-286/88, Falciola v. Comune di Pavia, (1990) ECR I-191. A reference to the relevant paragraph(s) in the judgment or decision should be provided.
 - (d) Use single quotation marks (''), with double quotation marks within single.
 - (e) Extracts should follow the original for spelling, punctuation and capitalization.
 - (f) All punctuation marks should appear outside quotation marks unless the quotation includes an entire sentence.
 - (g) When using numbers, spell out zero to ninety-nine and use numerals for the rest, e.g., 120 or 1,200.
 - (h) Heading levels should be clearly indicated. (i) Oxford-z spelling is preferred, unless the whole article comes from an American author or the material is an extract from an American case or document.
- (15) Contributions should be posted to José Rivas, Bird & Bird, Avenue d'Auderghem 22-28 box 9, 1040 Brussels, Belgium or sent electronically to jose.rivas@twobirds.com or world.competition@twobirds.com
